BOARDMAN WELCOMES A NEW FACE AT CITY HALL

There is a new face at Boardman City Hall. Recently the city welcomed Martin Martinez as the city's new code compliance official. He began duties on January replacing Keri Jarmer who resigned at the end of last year.

Mr. Martinez' duties as the code compliance official will focus on educating citizens about the city codes, and he will administer the City's Municipal and Development Codes relating to violations, nuisance abatement, animal control, and other related issues within the City limits of Boardman. City Manager, Karen Pettigrew is excited to have Martin as part of the team at city hall. She said his bilingual skills will be of great value in working with the citizens of Boardman.

Mr. Martinez grew up in Boardman and is a 2004 graduate of Riverside High School. He lives in Boardman with his wife and three children.
