BOARDMAN GETS DECORATED FOR CHRISTMAS

For the third year in a row, Santa's elves turned out to light up Boardman for Christmas. Even though temperatures were below freezing, on Saturday the 23rd over 30 volunteers spent the morning decorating the City of Boardman. Made up mostly of Riverside High School students, the volunteers placed wooden cut outs, Christmas lights, garland, and wreaths around town.

The City of Boardman sponsors the Christmas Decoration Committee. Their goal is to decorate Boardman for the Christmas season for everyone to enjoy. Each year the committee has expanded their decorating, which now includes Christmas decorations at the city's new splash pad park.

Committee Chair Marc Rogelstad said this year's turn out of volunteers was the biggest. He was happy to see so many young people help out. The Christmas Decoration Committee would like to thank everyone who helped decorate Boardman for Christmas.
